

Love Cursed

Slank

Since I've been without you
I'm losing my faith for you
Nothing seems to be going right
My heart painted black, black as night

It's been such a long lonely time
Lose my dreams and lose my mind
You always treat me like a fool
And I always be your tool

But I don't know why
I love you
And I don't know why
I'm still loving you

I thought you put a curse on me
All my friends said I'm crazy
Nothing makes me feel alright
My life to black, black as night
