Alive

Slapshock

I'll disconnect myself just to gain some respect
I'll fall flat on my face 'cause life is like a game
I'll lick my wounds to taste my failure and disgrace
And learn to live again and now I'll kill the pain

So I turn around and leave my scars
And [?]

Breathe again, I breathe again
You're wasting your time
I bleed again, I bleed again
'Cause I feel alive
Breathe again, I breathe again
You're wasting your time
I bleed again, I bleed again
'Cause I feel alive

I'll raise my arms tonight, my fear is out of sight
The spear stuck on my side, I'm wounded but alive
Unspoken words of fire, it cuts me a thousand times
The beauty in your lies is sweet but it's a crime

So I turn around and leave my scars
And [?]

Breathe again, I breathe again
You're wasting your time
I bleed again, I bleed again
'Cause I feel alive
I breathe again, I breathe again
You're wasting your time
I bleed again, I bleed again
'Cause I feel alive

I withstand the weather in my life
I will find the center of my life
I withstand the weather in my life

Breathe again, I breathe again
You're wasting your time
Bleed again, I bleed again
'Cause I feel alive

Breathe again, I breathe again
You're wasting your time
I bleed again, I bleed again
'Cause I feel alive
Breathe again, I breathe again
You're wasting your time
I bleed again, I bleed again
'Cause I feel alive

Just breathe again
Just breathe again
Bleed again, I bleed again
'Cause I feel alive
Breathe again

Just breathe again
Bleed again, I bleed again
'Cause I feel alive
