Slapshock

Let's go
We're lost in time in the eyes of agony
In the sea of sorrow there is no tomorrow
Our misery in the hand of enemies
There is no salvation, it's just evolution

We're buried down alive
There's no way to survive
It's time to pray we're on the darkest day
The angels have fallen
Slowly we're dying
We're in a hole, we lost control
This is the judgment day
We feel the pain you bring
This is a reckoning

We are nothing, we are all part of the game
We are bound to feel the pain
We're never getting out inside this circle
We're gonna live and die inside this circle

Let's go
It's in their hands, we are part of the master plan
It's like a new addiction in the wrong direction
Uncertainty is the only thing we see
There is no possession, only bad intention

We're buried down alive
There's no way to survive
It's time to pray we're on the darkest day
The angels have fallen
Slowly we're dying
We're in a hole, we lost control
This is the judgment day
We feel the pain you bring
This is a reckoning

We are nothing, we are all part of the game
We are bound to feel the pain
We're never getting out inside this circle
We're gonna live and die inside this circle

Waiting on the other side
Hoping that we can survive
The fear has been gone for so long
But we feel the pain all along

We are nothing, we are all part of the game
We are bound to feel the pain
We're never getting out inside this circle
We're gonna live and die inside this circle
