

Get Away

Slapshock

Throw your hate to the sky
We guarantee to make you smile
All the things you can't deny
Coz we come, come, come correct
So protect your neck
Coz you'll be comin' to reject
Yo mic check
An invitation to your door
And check the score
We deliver to you hardcore
There's too much hype in this business
So grab this, get pissed, don't diss
Get down while you feed this
Freeze, 32 degrees, take the boundaries
Yeah get ready for the last kiss
Coz it's time to open up your window
We got the vibe, we comin' to you loco
Here comes the sound explodin' to your audio
Here we go, we're fuckin' up the scenario
You think it's pretty
Like another Sex in the City
You're greedy, you're witty
You're acting fool like you're crazy
Your territory, I don't invade
Without a fist of fury
Here we go
Be my pain

You want my sensitivity
You try to get away from me
You want my sensitivity
You try to get away

Way
Go to get away

Got to get away

I swallow, I wallow
The snake doesn't rattle
You kick me in the face
Just to start another battle
It's this place that makes me go insane
You try to program me
Manipulate my brain
Everyone try to beat your ass
Like Sugar Ray beat Duran
You go no mas, no mas, you don't trust
To live is a must
Ashes to ashes, dust to dust
Assassinator, the hate instigator
You cut me with your tongue
Coz you're sharper than a razor
Just a blink of an eye you can die
You can scream in your dream
You can cry, you can lie
What you feel right inside

I don't know how to live
I don't know how to die
What can you do if you know
They were pushin' you back
In this life, keep on track
Got to know where you're at
So come up, let me see
How you people react
Be my pain

Die alone, livin' on my own
Ignore my skills but it's stickin' to your bone
No limitations
Step back so I can't function
Be a superstar like the Temptations

Yeah I'm your enemy
Save my sanity
Protect yourself
Be what you wanna be
