

Great Escape

Slapshock

Should be a reason to answer
All my mistakes that throws you away
If I could, give you all my life,
I know I would but it wont be today

I've been hiding behind the great escape
With memories of you and me
I've been wanted in this masquerade
Leaving all my misery

Holding these words that you said to me
I know I can
Keep it within
I can't forget all the good times
But for undying days that I cant escape

I've been hiding behind the great escape
With memories of you and me
I've been wanted in this masquerade
Leaving all my misery
I've been hiding behind the great escape
With memories of you and me
I've been wanted in this masquerade
Leaving all my misery
