

Lie (One More Day)

Slapshock

If I lie to you
Would you give me a second chance?
Can I lie to one more day?

I watch you outside my window
All through the night
But the sun is coming up like a bullet in my eye
I'm swallowing my pride

Should I let you go?
Cause I've been wasting all my time
Will you let this day?
If you know what is all about

I will take the chance
If you give me one
But for now I want to know

If I lie to you
Would you give me a second chance?
Can I lie to one more day?
If I lie to you
Would you give me a second chance?
Can I lie to one more day?

Lately Ive been colder than December
And I never shine
My emotions running high while your tears touch you dry
Like a hot summertime

I will keep my heart
Just to have you in my arms
I will grab just fine I will try to make you fly

I speak nothing but lies it burn my eyes
You don't believe on nothing
Should I tell the truth or something?

Do you surprise arrow that lies twice
But I ended up on losing is when you started turning a lie... a lie... a lie... to you
