

Queen Paranoia

Slapshock

I see my fear everytime I open up my eyes
When you come around I will try to hypnotize
I talk in fear coz you caught me by surprise
I need to scream or I need to realize

I've been so full of you
Need not to take it
Give me somethin' else that I can do
How can I disappear
When I can't even see those things I try to hear

I'm sick and tired of all these games
This game you try to feed me
But it feels the same

Now that you're gone maybe I can be like someone else
I talk too proud just to let it off my chest
I can't believe I was stuck inside
Been there for so long didn't notice pass the time

You say you'll be all right
But you won't give up without a fight
Things have been so unreal
Give me something else that I can kill
Just one more thing before you go
When you leave just close the door
