Slapshock

Be the witness
Be the scar that I can't seem to hide
In my life
Be the sickness
That I can't seem to understand why
It won't die
Soul is dying
Lead the prayer for eternity
Close your eyes
Resurrect me
Bring me back to the place where I have
Peace of mind

Stay around
As we begin again
We will rise today
And breathe the new life
Stay awake
Drop your innocence
We can start again
Taste the new life

You are the reason
For the fire that's burning inside
We collide
Got me twisted
Suffocated in my own device
To survive
Your pretension
Is becoming my worst enemy
It's a crime
I'm convicted
In your world full of doubts and regret
So unkind

Stay around
As we begin again
We will rise today
And breathe the new life
Stay awake
Drop your innocence
We can start again
Taste the new life

Dispose your anger, clean your soul
End your suffering, take control
The world is covered with dust
Now it's time to die
(And get reborn!)

I'll try to live my life without the wounds of my past
(Start over)
No memory, no suffering, no room for mistake
(Start over)
(It's now or never)
(Start over)
