

Crooked

Slapstick

On the corner there's a bunch of people livin cause they haven' t got a place to stay
The president can't see them no he doesn't give a fuck
And their anger grows and grows each day

Well I can see the government is putting on a show
I can see right through it, it's fuckin crooked to the bone
It's a time bomb

Somewhere in a factory there's a little guy working off his bal ls for the minimum wage
While the big guys sits around just standing in his office maki ng money on his ass all day

Well I can see right through it, and it's crooked to the bone
It's a fuckin time bomb fuckin ready to explode
It's a time bomb

Unity's the answer and we gotta join together
Cause it's gettin harder every day
Start a revolution, tell those fuckers in power
To get the fuck out of our way
Well I can see right through it, and it's crooked to the bone
I can see right through it, it's fuckin crooked to the bone
It's a time bomb
It's gonna be a time bomb
