

Wicked Stone

Slash

Last night in paradise
I can feel it down in my bones
There's a gallows behind
Now I die on the van
Waiting for my redemption song

I have never saved
Just to walk in bow
And I may not rage
And I'm gone

I'm getting on this wicked stone
'Cause I can't stay
And I cannot deny that
All I want is lost
No, I can't face
Another night on this wicked stone

I roll and tumble down
And I curse still I'm on a light
From your mountain I fall to the depths of the hell
I wish there's steel and bone to find

Once a rolling stone
Now a falling star
Was so close to home
Now so far

I'm getting on this wicked stone
'Cause I can't stay
And I cannot deny that
All I want is lost
No, I can't face
Another night on this wicked stone

No, you might say I'm good for nothing
And I might say that you are right
Can I crawl away
From this fallen chain
It's got me tethered to a world of pain
I'm taking my own break this time
On this wicked stone tonight

I'm getting on this wicked stone
'Cause I can't stay
And I cannot deny that
All I want is lost
No, I can't face
Another night on this wicked stone
