

Daddy

Slaves

Daddy's got a new car, driving with the roof down 20 miles an hour, going slow, rolling through the town
Wasted again on these late nights with strange men
Spending like it's nothing 'cause he don't know how to make fri ends

But he's trying so hard
Ah

Daddy's got a new girl, young enough to be his kid
Making up for lost time, things he wishes that he did
Back when he was younger, is it any wonder?
Is it any wonder?

There's things he wishes he did back when he was a kid
Things he wishes he did back when he was a kid
Things he wishes he did
Ah
