

Clean Again

Slaves

I already told you everything
I already told you everything

Where do we go from here
Used to be oh so clear
Thought the feeling might of disappeared by now

Were my promises far from true
Was there nothing I wouldn't do
I was dying to be closer to you somehow

I already told you everything
Never wonder what you mean to me
Baby you and I only took five nights
Just to say three words for the first time
Already told you everything

But I wish we could come clean again
Come clean again
Yeah
Clean again
Yeah
