Eternity

Slaves

Staring at the sun
Your arms around my neck
Waves against the rocks
Break the silence
But to paint a pretty picture's not what I mean
So rewind it back and read it like a crime scene

Glassy eyes are open
Signs of our struggling
Stones thrown like weapons
Quieted suffering
Can't deny a motive
Under an ocean of
Anger and resentment
How could this happen when

I don't wanna be, wanna be, wanna be with anybody but you

Took on water until we sank
You and I could have lived for an eternity
Hand in hand as we walked the plank
You and I could have lived for an eternity

Stay on the move
Step in the coroner's shoes
Uncovering clues
Under the light of moon
They say on the news
Killer is still on the loose
But only we knew
Secrets survive in the truth

Never could shut my mouth
Made you uncomfortable
Said it was an accident
Made it look intentional
Remedies please the moment
But we'll never see the morning
I got reservations
I'm afraid of the future we're breaking in

Took on water until we sank
You and I could have lived for an eternity
Hand in hand as we walked the plank
You and I could have lived for an eternity

Hold me one last time

The dead do not dream
But I might as well try
To find you again
When the sea meets the sky
The dead do not dream
To find you again

Took on water until we sank
You and I could have lived
For an eternity
Hand in hand as we walked the plank
You and I could have lived
For an eternity
Took on water until we sank
You and I could have lived
