

Nothing Left

Slaves

I won't pray for a miracle
You keep calling me cynical
What did I ever do that would land me in this world with you?
I could leave but the plan wouldn't pan out like I want it to

My day's incomplete
Till we make a scene

I keep on wishing you'd say something new
Feels like you're getting away with deja vu
Been here a million times
You won't apologize
Fucked up my state of mind
Playing bulletproof
That's when I realized

Maybe you, maybe you
Got nothing left to lose
Maybe you, maybe you

For my own sake I let it slide
Don't mistake silence for leaving the fight
Only person you know that'll throw your bullshit back at you
If you name me the time and the place then I'd be happy to

My day's incomplete
Till we make a scene

I keep on wishing you'd say something new
Feels like you're getting away with deja vu
Been here a million times
You won't apologize
Fucked up my state of mind
Playing bulletproof
That's when I realized

Maybe you, maybe you
Maybe you, maybe you

You wouldn't even notice I was gone
The truth is you're just barely holding on
You wouldn't even notice I was gone
The truth is you're just barely holding on

I keep on wishing you'd say something new
Feels like you're getting away with deja vu
Been here a million times
You won't apologize
Fucked up my state of mind
Playing bulletproof
That's when I realized

Maybe you, maybe you

Maybe you, maybe you

Maybe you, maybe you
Maybe you, maybe you
