

Prayers

Slaves

You look beautiful but you feel so low
Why you going to a party that way
I could let it play through another show
But I don't wanna hear you're sorry again

Cause I'm starting to think when I'm not by your side
That your tellin' me, tellin' me lies

You can act like nothing's wrong
In a place you don't belong
Up until you walk into the light, whoa
But you can't tell where you are
Probably tripping over stars
Or are you stumbling down the boulevard
Gonna keep you in my prayers tonight

(Deep down, deep down you know)
(Deep down, deep down you know)
(Deep down, deep down you know)
Know you're not that innocent

I know I'm only one that you wanna touch
But you know you been a handful
And I can handle a lot, yeah
Imma turn it off cause I care too much
Heard you say you're being careful, I know you're not Cause I know you don't know when to stop

You can act like nothing's wrong
In a place you don't belong
Up until you walk into the light, whoa
But you can't tell where you are
Probably tripping over stars
Or are you stumbling down the boulevard
Gonna keep you in my prayers tonight

(Deep down, deep down you know)
Know you're not that innocent
(Deep down, deep down you know)
You know it turns me on

You can act like nothing's wrong
In a place you don't belong
Up until you walk into the light, whoa
But you can't tell where you are
Probably tripping over stars
Or are you stumbling down the boulevard
Gonna keep you in my prayers tonight

(Deep down, deep down you know)
(Deep down, deep down you know)
(Deep down, deep down you know)
Gonna keep you in my prayers tonight
(Deep down, deep down you know)
(Deep down, deep down you know)
(Deep down, deep down you know)
Gonna keep you in my prayers tonight
