

Same Again

Slaves

Waiting in line
Faking a smile
Checking the time
Yeah I've been waiting a while
My face is cold
My hands are dry
Reading a message
Too which I do not reply
Thinking out loud
About a disease
Which Floods your insides
So you cannot breath
Oh what a way
Oh what a world
Oh what a day
To fuck up my day

Same again, week in week out
Same again, week in week out
Same again, week in week out
Same again, week in week out

You can feel the warmth
It was increasingly warm
Than the time we lost day
That indication was poor
Prices are rising
It's nothing new
Been working all week
Oh whats a father for you
Abide by the rules
That were set by the fools
They got one amateur rodeo
For gripping your balls
Straight to the bar
You Know the drill
Money to spend
Time to kill

Same again, week in week out
Same again, week in week out
Same again, week in week out
Same again, week in week out

I'll get the next one
I'll get the next one mine
Why you laughing?
The same again yeah?
Week in, Week Out
Week in, Week Out
Week in, Week Out, out out out

Whaaa

Waiting in line
Faking a smile

Yeah I've been waiting a while
My face is cold
My hands are dry
Reading a message
Too which I do not reply
Thinking out loud
About a disease
So you cannot breath
Oh what a way
Oh what a day
Thank Fuck I'm okay

Same again, week in week out
Same again, week in week out
Same again, week in week out
Same again, week in week out

I'll get the next one
Yeah I'll get the next one
Same again, week in, week Out
Week in, week Out,out out out get out
