Suicide

Slaves

Drive your car into the sea
Lock your doors and think about me
Throw yourself from the 28th floor
Cause you can't take much more

Drive your car into the sea
What will be won't fucking be
Throw yourself from the 28th floor
Take acid in a hardware store

Suicide, suicide
Suicide
You can't run, you can't hide
It's in your mind

Drive your car into the sea
Lock your doors and think about me
Throw yourself from the 28th floor
Cause you can't take any more

Suicide, suicide
Suicide
From suicide
