

Why Would You?

Slaves

Why would you serve in heaven
When you can rule in hell?
I wanna sell my soul
But I haven't got a soul to sell
Beg for mercy or die for the cause
Beg for mercy or die for the cause
And you can steal it for the round of applause
At the end

Self-destruct, let's wake them up
Self-destruct, let's wake them up
Self-destruct, wake them up
Wake up
Wake up
Wake up
Wake up, wake up, wake up

With every joy, there's a price to be paid
With every joy, there's a price to be paid
With every joy
There's a price that you should pay
Blinded by the pound signs, stuck in your eyes
Blinded by the pound signs, stuck in your eyes
Blinded by the pound signs, stuck in your eyes
Blinded by the pound signs, stuck in your eyes and now you're blind

Self-destruct, let's wake them up
Self-destruct, let's wake them up
Self-destruct, wake them up
Wake up
Wake up
Please wake up
Wake up, wake up, wake up, wake up
