

Baby, you really hurt me
You made me cry so much
I never needed your love

You are just a ghost to me
You are just a ghost, baby
You are just a ghost, baby, where'd you go?
You are just a ghost to me
You are just a ghost to me
You are just a ghost, baby
You are just a ghost, baby, where'd you go?
You are just a ghost to me

I want back the necklace
I'll keep the memories
Go fuck your boring girls
Cause you can't handle me
Don't sext another word
Fuck what you have to say
Boy, I don't need your love
You're just a ghost to me

You are just a ghost to me
You are just a ghost, baby
You are just a ghost, baby, where'd you go?
You are just a ghost to me
You are just a ghost to me
You are just a ghost, baby
You are just a ghost, baby, where'd you go?
You are just a ghost to me

Baby, you are just a ghost to me
I'm so far away, now I live in my dreams
Maybe it wasn't all meant to be
Feel like I can breathe even though you're haunting me

You are just a ghost to me
You are just a ghost, baby
You are just a ghost, baby, where'd you go?
You are just a ghost to me
