

Letters

Slayyyter

Call me again
Talk to me softly
Started as friends
Feeling so lonely

I know you're hurt, I can see through the pain
You're always drunk, and I act too insane
But I'll carve a heart in the house that we made
With both of our names

I won't let you go
Even when you're sad
Even if you ask me to
I want you to know
You can have my heart
Here for you to hold on to
I've been waiting all my life for you

(Wait, wait)
I know you write
Letters about me
Cry when we fight
Smile when you hold me

I wished for love, every night I would pray
You came along, turned the night into day
Watching the sky, kissing me in the rain
The world fades away

I won't let you go
Even when you're sad
Even if you ask me to
I want you to know
You can have my heart
Here for you to hold on to
I've been waiting all of my life for you

I won't let you go
Even when you're sad
Even if you ask me to
I want you to know
You can have my heart
Here for you to hold on to
I've been waiting all of my life for you

I've been waiting all my life for you
