

Serial Killer

Slavytter

Every time I look at you
I wonder what you've been up to
You disappear almost every night, all night
I'm findin' blood on your clothes
Wonderin' where the hell you go
Baby, somethin' just ain't right, it ain't right

Don't wanna look for all the things that I'm afraid to find
Who is the person I've been layin' next to every night?
When I get suspicion-intuition I am always right
Why in the kitchen are we missin' all the sharpest knives?

You're a serial killer
Cuttin' girls up for dinner
You're a serial killer
Cuttin' girls up for dinner
You're a serial killer (You're a serial, serial killer)
Cuttin' girls up for dinner (Cuttin' girls up for dinner)
You're a serial killer (You are a serial killer baby)
Cuttin' girls up for dinner (Oh, yeah)

(I don't want him to get lethal injection)
('Cause our love is my greatest obsession)
(But man of my dreams, he may kill me)
(Like, really kill me)
(And I know that if I stick around)
(I'll wind up like the girls in town)
(They'll find me 10 feet underground)
(Right where he put me)

You're a serial killer (Yeah, I know what you are)
Cuttin' girls up for dinner (And I know where you've been)
You're a serial killer (Oh, and every single night it's the same thing)
You're a serial, a serial (Ha-ha-ha)

You are a serial killer
You are a serial killer
You are a serial killer
You are a serial killer

Don't wanna look for all the things that I'm afraid to find
Who is the person I've been sleepin' next to every night?
When I get suspicion-intuition I am always right
Why in the kitchen are we missin' all the sharpest knives?
