

alright

slchld

You know what it feels like
Struggling just to be alright
No stars to be found on these long nights
Just wanna be alright
You know what it feels like
Struggling just to be alright
No stars to be found on these long nights
Just wanna be alright

I thought that it would fade when you left me
Didn't know that you were trying to teach a lesson
I was young and immature, yeah you know this
You knew that I was lost, I don't blame you
Cause I don't wanna hate you
Might just come off as an asshole
But I'm that one that took the fall, no
And I'm not tripping when I say that You give me signs like you wanted me still

Play my heart, yeah you giving me thrills
When I'm with you, girl I don't need pills
I'm not shy when it comes to you
Give you love that is hard to lose
Play my heart, yeah you giving me thrills
When I'm with you, girl I don't need pills
I'm not shy when it comes to you
Give you love that is hard to lose

You know what it feels like
Struggling just to be alright
No stars to be found on these long nights
Just wanna be alright
You know what it feels like
Struggling just to be alright
No stars to be found on these long nights
Just wanna be alright

You know what it feels like
Yeah
You know what it feels like
Oh
