I feel like we got something to prove
I work myself, I'm trying to improve
Somebody poisoned the water, I'm about to drink it anyway

I bathed in blood before
Something tells me it was the right thing to do
I put my life in your hands
I'm trying to contain this love
I'm filled with anger
To the thought that I can't do much right now
I am lost in thought, baby
There has to be a way

To save what is ours
To break what is holding you back
I wouldn't dare to ask right now but
Wait for me, I will be back in no time
To claim you as my own

You told me your tainted
Let me see your hands
I feel your warmth from far away
I can't be your man
If you don't believe in me
Baby, trust me just this once

What can I say?
What do you want me to be?
Believe in the world that you see
Trust not nobody, everyone lying
You said you want to be
Somebody close to me
Somebody special to me
I want you to be home

To save what is ours
To break what is holding you back
I wouldn't dare to ask right now but
Wait for me, I will be back in no time
To claim you as my own

You told me your tainted
Let me see your hands
I feel your warmth from far away
I can't be your man
If you don't believe in me
Baby, trust me just this once
