

hate me

slchld

She says she don't mind it
But that's not the case
I know you're afraid
You make it hard to read your mind
But just know one thing
I'll always wait for you my love

I stayed out of your head
How can I say less
And once you've made up your mind
I know I can't change it

You're hurting to see that
So let me inside
Open your heart to me again

Girl you hate me
Do you still hate me?
Don't you hate me
If you said maybe

Girl you hate me
Do you still hate me?
Don't hate me
If you said maybe

Girl you hate me
Do you still hate me?
Don't hate me
Just say maybe

We both got holes in our hearts
Although we don't know where to start
Baby please don't hate me
Don't hate me
