

Girl won't you be there for me?
I've been at work I can't see
Even if something's about one more
Sometimes I contemplate
What if I made the wrong move
It hurts not to be understood
Take me as who I am
But I hate, I hate

I'm drowning in sadness
I'm taking advices
It hurts just to breathe
But I can't go to somewhere else
I smile just to function
But it's not who I am
But I had enough

Can I go on to
Somebody I can hold on to
These feelings you've left, I won't trust you
I won't make choices that'll hurt me again

Can I go on to
Somebody I can hold on to
These feelings you've left, I won't trust you
I won't make choices that'll hurt me again

Do you feel me still
Back when we danced
On our very own hill

Can I go on to
Somebody I can hold on to
These feelings you've left I won't trust you
I won't make choices that'll hurt me again

Can I go on to
Somebody I can hold on to
These feelings you've left I won't trust you
I won't make choices that'll hurt me again
