

IF YOU LISTEN CLOSELY

slchld

Is it true that I can fall in love?
In a moment's notice, shaking up
My chest pumping vividly
Some days I can't feel my feet

Chasing someone that won't notice me
Like an endless plate at Applebee's

I hope they don't see my face
Cuz I know they won't feel the same

Kept nobody close
I'm further away
From the dreams where I started
I'm fading in place

I know that you're calling
To see if I'm okay
I'm at your doorstep
Where I'll rightfully

Stay thru my autumns
Stay thru the cold
Stay thru the mornings
When the coffee gets cold

You stayed down all thru the rain
You stayed down all thru the pain

You're my hope on my mountain full of problems
You're my rock during times when I'm rock bottom
I've been cold I've been sinking in the darkness
All these cries I've been crying for my hopelessness

Kept nobody close
I'm further away
From the dreams where I started
I'm fading in place

I know that you're calling
To see if I'm okay
I'm at your doorstep
Where I'll rightfully

Stay thru my autumns
Stay thru the cold
Stay thru the mornings
When the coffee gets cold

You stayed down all thru the rain
You stayed down all thru the pain

You stayed down all thru the rain
You stayed down all thru the pain
