

love me at my worst

slchld

No matter how many times
You linger on my mind
There's no need to be sure
I'm always on your side
Even if for a moment, you need to let loose your emotions
Just call me, I'll keep my ears
On the open for you, 'cause all I know how to do
Is keep loving you, love through and through

Caught up with our love life on the weekend
Took our days off for the times we need healing
(They say) nothing's real more than fake love
(They say) don't follow her 'cause she famous
(They say) knowing well it won't last long
(They say) oh nah

Old school yet the same us
On a road few have taken
True love, yeah we hoping
We did it right, we did it right
Ninety nine, you're the one
From all the hearts I have broken
Still held onto me
Still held onto me

I see you naked all over my sheets
Without you I can't be complete
A couple holes to fill till we're free
You're all that I need

No matter how many times
You linger on my mind
There's no need to be sure
I'm always on your side
Even if for a moment, you need to let loose your emotions
Just call me, I'll keep my ears
On the open for you, 'cause all I know how to do
Is keep loving you, gonna love through and through

I see you jaded, pardon me babe
If I'm out of reach will you just let me stay the same?
No, I can't rearrange our love
Our love
