she knows

slchld

Shine on me

Dream of me (yeah, yeah)
Did you dream of me (oh no)
Baby you (baby you)
I feel like you know

I know what I'm doing
I think she knows
She knows what she's doing
I think I know

You look damn alive (so alive)
She knows I no longer can hide it
Fight on the water I'll try
Swallow your lies and your pride

(Don't let me)
Don't let me down
It ain't about the fame
It ain't about the money

I see your Gucci bag
I know you can't afford it
So why are you here?

I know what I'm doing
I think she knows
She knows what she's doing
I think I know

You look damn alive (so alive)
She knows I no longer can hide it

I know what I'm doing
I think she knows
She knows what she's doing
I think I know

You look damn alive (so alive)
She knows I no longer can hide it
