

SOMEBODY

slchld

What does it feel to have somebody
Always in your corner
Cuz I cannot imagine
I'd be down with everything I do

I burn bridges and bring
More pain than more laughter
I burn and I drink
Can't recall more of after

Is there a way out of this hole I made for me?
Is there a reason why you stretch your hands for me?

What does it feel to have somebody
Always in your corner
Cuz I cannot imagine
I'd be down with everything I do

I thought I'd never wake up in time
I cannot bring myself to say
Please love me just the same
Yet you loved me either way

Is there a way out of this hole I made for me?
Is there a reason why you stretch your hands for me?

What does it feel to have somebody
Always in your corner
Cuz I cannot imagine
I'd be down with everything I do
