

I don't know if I could say the same things
Couldn't tell if you were trying to break me
This song of mine might be the last talk about you
Cause I can't go on with myself

I'm falling out of circles that we
Used to be a part of together
Wish I had known
What you were trying to say
Maybe make amends

Don't know if you're still there
Balling out on the train alone I'm
Here spacing out cause I can't move on
No matter how much I have tried
We'll fall apart whether wrong or right

Pleading for some time
Reasons I can't tell why
Fell right apart where we started
So damn endless

I know what you're upset about
And I'm sure you know how mad I am
Why can't we come to understand our differences
Maybe make amends

Don't know if you're still there
Balling out on the train alone I'm Here spacing out because I can't move on
No matter how much I have tried
We'll fall apart whether wrong or right

Don't know if you're still there
Balling out on the train alone I'm
Here spacing out cause I can't move on
No matter how much I have tried
We'll fall apart whether wrong or right
