

tall and ugly (interlude)

slchld

For you, for two
Ain't nothing big at all

Can we, for love
Don't act too fucking tall

Don't go too far, maybe we're all too deep
Lately
I won't lie, you've been so cold to me
Lately

For love like this a song is sung in bitter
Tunes

I don't wanna ever go back
To the life that I used to call wack

Loving ain't same without watching the Flowers be growing like I don't know when

Can we pretend, when we look back
Suddenly aging but I'm feeling ten

Heaven only knows if we're lonely
Unless we be honest to each other

The truth is, I don't love you anymore
