

Broken

Sleater-Kinney

Deep, deep, deep run the feelings
Rolling inside my mind
Keep, keep, keep it together
Afraid to let them fly

I really can't fall apart right now
I really can't touch that place
Thought I was all grown up right now
I really can't show you that face

But I'm breaking in two
But I'm breaking inside
But I'm breaking in two
'Cause I'm broken inside

She, she, she stood up for us
When she testified
Me, me too
My body cried out when she spoke those lines

But it hits me too close to the bone
I thought I was all grown up right now
But I feel like I'll never be done

But I'm breaking in two
But I'm breaking inside
But I'm breaking for you
All the ways that we tried
But I'm breaking in two
Never feeling alright
But I'm breaking in two
'Cause I'm broken inside
