(Equinox made it)
Sleazy
Heartbreaks, heartaches
Heartbreaks, heartache

She tired of dealin' with heartbreaks, lil' baby heart aches
How you gon' tell her it's forever, then you walk away?
Went and found love and affection in another place
Would've gave you a heart up out or chest if that'd made you stay
So grimy and shiesty, Sleazy
He took her heart and did it greazy
Friends keep tellin' her she should leave me
But he all she knew so she need him

She like, "Sleazy, why you do me greazy?"
You come fuck me like you love me, then you leave me
She want me to be her nigga, but it ain't that easy
You barely come see me, come on, why you tease me?
He broke her heart, he led her on, he ain't tell her the truth
She tired of dealin' with liars to tell you the truth
Her last nigga was a lame, wasn't no better than you
He fucked up, damaged her heart, and did it just like you
He broke her heart in a million pieces
She still in love with the nigga, he cheatin'
I can't give up on the fact she ain't leave him
Find her way back, he say he changed, she believed him
She believed him, uh
Why she believe him?

She tired of dealin' with heartbreaks, lil' baby heart aches
How you gon' tell her it's forever, then you walk away?
Went and found love and affection in another place
Would've gave you a heart up out or chest if that'd made you stay
So grimy and shiesty, Sleazy
He took her heart and did it greazy
Friends keep tellin' her she should leave me
But he all she knew so she need him

Need him
Sleazy, oh
