

Empty Hearted

SleazyWorld Go

I'm lettin' my soul cry, I'm lettin' my pain speak for me
I'm trapped up in these trenches, I'm a slave to these streets
And I can't trust myself, how can I trust somebody else?

My heart been scarred severely, I'm scared to love somebody else

I'm in too deep now

Fell in love with takin' drugs, that's how I sleep now
And my heart was full of love, but it's empty now
Yeah, my heart was full of love, but it's empty now

I gave my heart to this one bitch, that lil' ho did me wrong

I fucked her friend for that get-back, now she won't leave me 'lone

Been fakin' fallouts with my bitch, I ain't been comin' home

No, she ain't did shit wrong, she ask me what I'm on

Can you stand the rain, baby?

I been goin' through some shit, I'm full of pain, baby

If the police come and lock me in them chains, baby

Would you ride with a nigga, never change, baby?

Let me know what it is 'cause I been thuggin' in the field

My lil' baby pray for me, I know she scared I'ma get killed

What it take to show me that you real?

Is it death or is it prison? Time will tell

Only time will tell if a motherfucker solid or not, nigga

Bitches swear they'll hold a nigga down, but when they turn her e

They ain't gon' ride for me

I'm lettin' my soul cry, I'm lettin' my pain speak for me

I'm trapped up in these trenches, I'm a slave to these streets

And I can't trust myself, how can I trust somebody else?

My heart been scarred severely, I'm scared to love somebody else

I'm in too deep now

Fell in love with takin' drugs, that's how I sleep now

And my heart was full of love, but it's empty now

Yeah, my heart was full of love, but it's empty now

It's empty now

I went the Sleazy way, ayy

Thug You the EP comin' soon, man
