

Tryna Heal

SleazyWorld Go

VRex going too hard, though

I'm almost healed from the pain and the trauma I've been through
Before you show 'em love make sure they present it back to you
Even though it feel like I'm losing, I know I ain't lost yet
I bought you everything, but you complain 'bout what I ain't bought yet
You so selfish

My own friends envy me, they couldn't help it
And I knew you was doing me wrong because I felt it
And her lace front look so good, her shit was melted
You can't blame me for your hand, I ain't the one who dealt it
And I shoulda knew something fishy was going on 'cause I smelt it
What you lose when you love someone too much?
I know this young nigga who fell in love with a bitch who lost his trust
You lose yourself tryna fix something that can't be fixed at all
And I know how it feel when you locked up and they don't pick up your call
I feel bad even though I do, I still miss nigga calls
But I hope they know I love 'em
Like a wave, when I get paid they books I flood 'em
Mm

I'm almost healed from the pain and the trauma I've been through
Before you show 'em love make sure they present it back to you
I been so stressed, I might fuck around and smoke a pack or two
Send shots at me, you best believe I'ma send 'em back at you

Living legend, I ain't gotta die to be one
A nigga tryna be me around, I think I see one
Give a bitch this D, her nigga can't fuck with me
Like the letter after E, he mad his bitch keep fucking me
Mm
And I know the path I'm on everybody can't take it
In the hood when the storm hit everybody don't make it
I gave my mind to only a few, I hope they don't break it
Used to wear shit that weren't real 'til I made it
I had to fake it
I knew it was a risk up in this shit but I had to take it
And God made sure she got better for me
I just hope he clear the weather for me

I'm almost healed from the pain and the trauma I've been through
Before you show 'em love make sure they present it back to you
I been so stressed, I might fuck around and smoke a pack or two
Send shots at me you best believe I'ma send 'em back at you
