

Betrayed

Slechtvalk

My brother, what have you done?
Victory was in our grasp
I can not understand why you have betrayed me
We were close to our goal
Now it is all but lost
Don't you understand you gave them what they wanted?

My brother, what have I done?
To deserve your wrath?
My mind cannot grasp what made you turn against me
Have I wronged you in the past?
Or do you hate me just because?
I never tried to live up to your expectations

(My brother, I want to forgive you but I don't know if I can After what you've done to me)

We believed things differently but I never saw you as my enemy
What? What have I done to become yours?
I thought we both longed for the glory of Asternas restored
But now none of us will live to see that day

I hear them fighting in the streets, didn't know our walls were breached
What? What's happening? Why are you standing still?
Are our own men fighting each other? Why are you still standing here?
Run! Run away before you die with me!

(I'll leave this world with just one regret
I never told you what you meant to me)
Though I die, I hope that fate will be kinder to you
But I see in your eyes a craving for the throne that should rem ain forlorn

AAA!!!
