

Rise or Fall

Slechtvalk

Arise my brethren,
Why are you lying down?
The fight is here now,
Why won't you take your sword?
Death is final if you won't rise
Rise or fall!

To rise or fall.
I know your melancholy feeds your self pity
But now is not the time,
You're not the only one
Who'll suffer when you fail?
Rise or fall

Your mind is caught
By the deception you will fail
Again and again
You believe you are a coward
Have no fear, victory can be yours
If you'd only rise
And use the sword that was given you

Arise!
Dwell on your failures
And you've already lost
Don't linger in regret

Damn your pride,
You know you need help
Don't deny your failures
Or you will do them again
You think you're standing
But you've been misled
Arise or face your ruin
