

Babe Ruth

Sleep On It

Come on and tell me why
We cannot fall behind
I can now remember every flame
We burned when we were young

We're the sound of a broken record
Repeating words and forgotten lines
Your cheap talk has been paying off like
You're with me every night
I don't know where I've been
Or who I'm letting down
We can try to get past all the things that we lack
And find a place to hide 'til the sun comes out

Come on and tell me why
We cannot fall behind
I can now remember every flame
We burned when we were young
I'll hold my breath
But I'm not breathing yet
Growing up but never getting old we'll stay
Forever a runaway

You're everything that carried me here
Bright lights on an empty street
Nowhere to go but anywhere we wanna be
I've been waiting for days 'til the sunrise
While we try to get past all the things that we lack
And find a place to hide 'til the sun goes down

Come on and tell me why
We cannot fall behind
I can now remember every flame
We burned when we were young
I'll hold my breath
But I'm not breathing yet
Growing up but never getting old we'll stay
Forever a runaway

I've been waiting for days for the sunrise
I've been waiting for days for the sunrise

Come on and tell me why
We cannot fall behind
I can now remember every flame
We burned when we were young
I'll hold my breath
But I'm not breathing yet
Growing up but never getting old we'll stay
Forever a runaway

Tell me why
We cannot fall behind
I can now remember every flame
We burned when we were young
I'll hold my breath
But I'm not breathing yet

Growing up but never getting old we'll stay
Forever a runaway
