

Drinks and alibis just to pass the time
Take you home, tell you what you want to hear
Three days of charades, it all ends up the same
Weekend friends get me to Sunday then disappear

Time felt, time felt different back then
(Like there was more of it)
Time felt, time felt different back then

Tell me 'bout the sunrise in the city
Tell me 'bout the bright lights, how it all looked so pretty
Like whoa ohohoh whoa ohohoh
Tell me 'bout the sunrise in the city
Tell me 'bout the bright lights, how it all looked so pretty
Like whoa ohohoh whoa ohohoh

Words you once despised, made you feel alive
Getting lost in all the places that we used to hide
Carry me away, get burned by the flame
Give me substance, give me closure, give me anything

Time felt, time felt different back then
(Like there was more of it)
Time felt, time felt different back then

Tell me 'bout the sunrise in the city
Tell me 'bout the bright lights, how it all looked so pretty
Like whoa ohohoh whoa ohohoh
Tell me 'bout the sunrise in the city
Tell me 'bout the bright lights, how it all looked so pretty
Like whoa ohohoh whoa ohohoh

Say what you want, we need to be honest
Color my thoughts with words, leaving me so in love
Say what you want, we need to be honest
Color my thoughts with words, leaving me so in love

Tell me 'bout the sunrise in the city
Tell me 'bout the bright lights, how it all looked so pretty
Like whoa ohohoh whoa ohohoh
Tell me 'bout the sunrise in the city
Tell me 'bout the bright lights, how it all looked so pretty
