

Fireworks

Sleep On It

Losing hope, sailing alone across your night sky
I'm trying to show you fireworks so

I took the backroads to nowhere
You said that you'd be there
Digesting the warmer air
We always gamble with cheap talk
Cracks in the sidewalks
It's too late to just walk away

Losing hope, sailing alone across your night sky
I'm trying to show you fireworks, so why don't you notice?
My eyes comprised of everything out of focus
The sound of silence setting in

If I could get in I'd follow
This buzzing my hollow incessant head makes
Now you're always on my mind
Will you come down?
The motives that I found
I question but somehow you're all I need (all I need)

Losing hope, sailing alone across your night sky
I'm trying to show you fireworks, so why don't you notice?
My eyes comprised of everything out of focus
The sound of silence setting in

Lost my faith
Made mistakes
Kept myself awake
Just to see how it felt to be strung out

I can say that I'll change that I'll keep you safe
I'll be fine, don't give up on me I'll come around

Lost my faith
Made mistakes
Kept myself awake
Just to see how it felt to be strung out

I can say that I'll change that I'll keep you safe
I'll be fine, don't give up

Losing hope, sailing alone across your night sky
I'm trying to show you fireworks, so why don't you notice?

Losing hope, sailing alone across your night sky
