

What We Stay Alive For

Sleep On It

Every street that's paved with apprehension
Is filling me with good intentions
All the doubt that I still hold is getting old
Like every single place that we've outgrown

I'm made to be
This reflection of nothing
But something is starting to show

Looking up I see the sun in my eyes
I feel it getting warmer
As the darkness dies
And I pray every day
That you will feel this way
Can you hear me when I say
You're not alone

Lost my way
Couldn't find the water in the rain
They say
Everything looks different because

I'm made to be
This reflection of nothing
But something is starting to show

Looking up I see the sun in my eyes
I feel it getting warmer
As the darkness dies
And I pray every day
That you will feel this way
Can you hear me when I say
You're not alone

Don't need a crutch to walk away
I won't buckle from the weight
Of the words you say
Cause I'm getting stronger
Don't need a crutch to walk away
I won't buckle from the weight
Every day
My stride's getting longer

Looking up I see the sun in my eyes
I feel it getting warmer
As the darkness dies
I pray every day
That you will feel this way
Can you hear me when I say
You're not

Looking up I see the sun in my eyes
I feel it getting warmer
As the darkness dies
I pray every day
That you will feel this way
Can you hear me when I say

You're not alone
You're not alone
You're not alone
You're not alone.
