

With Friends Like You, Who Needs Friends?

Sleep On It

Take a second truly dig in deep
Can you feel the tension, how the fuck do you sleep
Your self-proclaimed importance is all you let me find
You turned your back on me, and the fault's no longer mine

I look to the past but it passed away
Do you feel the same way

So tell me
How long will it take
For you to pick up the weight
Of what you just let go
Am I moving
Too fast for you
To pick up the pieces
They're falling through the cracks between you

A simple sign of loyalty is all that I need
Are you waiting for something, do I need to bleed
For you to finally see what this means to me
Remember when you said we were family
So after all these years, can you explain to me
How blind could you be

I look to the past but it passed away
Do you feel the same

So tell me
How long will it take
For you to pick up the weight
Of what you just let go
Am I moving
Too fast for you
To pick up the pieces
They're falling through the cracks

Well it's nothing new and nothing has changed
Every bridge you burn, every mess you made
I don't know how I'm feeling these days
Well it's nothing new and nothing has changed
Every bridge you burn, every mess you made
I don't know how I'm feeling these days

So tell me
How long will it take
For you to pick up the weight
Of what you just let go
Am I moving
Too fast for you
To pick up the pieces
They're falling through the cracks between you
