

It's Over

Sleep Theory

That's just how it goes
That's just how it's gotta be
Your moment of truth
Well it came of a lot of things
And I'm letting you go
You're no longer tied to me
My moment of truth
Was the moment you lied to me

Never thought you'd see me there
My presence caught you unaware
These voices echo everywhere
When you're alone

Every sign in front of me
Is becoming clear
As I find the air to breathe
This pain begins to leave and it's over
It's over

I didn't see it before
But now it's all I can see
When I fell to the floor
Just like I fell for everything
Push me away
After I let you in
Happens over and over again

Never thought you'd see me there
My presence caught you unaware
(You pushed me away)
These voices echo everywhere
When you're alone
(Again)

Every sign in front of me
Is becoming clear
As I find the air to breathe
This pain begins to leave and it's over
It's over

I'm not afraid to say
I'll be okay here on my own
Turn the key and drive away
Someone else can come and take me home
I think it's time for you to go

Every sign in front of me
Is becoming clear
As I find the air to breathe
This pain begins to leave and it's over
It's over

I won't see your tears
You can keep them all
Burning every bridge

Build a thousand walls
If it's what it takes
Then I'll leave this town
I can start again
If you're not around

I won't see your tears
(Every sign in front of me)
You can keep them all
(Is becoming clear)
(As I find the air to breathe)
(This pain begins to leave)
(And it's over)
(It's over)
I can start again
If you're not around
