

Paralyzed

Sleep Theory

You feel it
Creep in
A thousand knives that sink in
When all you
Believe in
Gets lost behind confusion

This war
Inside
Scorched Earth under blood red skies
This pain
In your mind
They don't see what's behind your eyes

Paralyzed from the fear inside
But pain is only temporary
So why are all these pages tearing
Terrified of what you hide behind
The weight of all the hurt you carry
The memories you try to bury now

Deep breath
Cold sweat
They say it's all in your head
But you're fighting
With what's next
Until you're left for dead

This war
Inside
Scorched Earth under blood red skies
This pain
In your mind
Brings back what you thought you left behind

Paralyzed from the fear inside
But pain is only temporary
So why are all these pages tearing
Terrified of what you hide behind
The weight of all the hurt you carry
The memories you try to bury now

Give me
A single moment of peace
I'm ripping through my skin
Just to find relief

Paralyzed from the fear inside
But pain is only temporary
So why are all these pages tearing
Terrified of what you hide behind
The weight of all the hurt you carry

This war
Inside
Scorched Earth under blood red

Pain is only temporary
