

Dangerous

Sleep Token

I wish I could have known that
Look in your eyes would echo in mine and go back
Out of my mind, across the line
When was the last time I felt like this?
Dark desire and tainted bliss

It's like you're dangerous to me
I notice every time we meet
I feel the ground beneath my feet
Giving way
You've got me talking in my sleep
As if you're conquering my dreams
You have awokened what's beneath
Again

Well, I thought I could resist you
But something in me just can't help but insist
To blur the lines just one last time so
When's the last time you tasted blood?
And what will it take to stem the flood?

And I am caught in time
Like clockwork beneath the permafrost
I might lose my mind
Back to back with oblivion
And you might breathe that burning breeze through
Paradise for me

It's like you're dangerous to me
I notice every time we meet
I feel the ground beneath my feet
Giving way
You've got me talking in my sleep
As if you're conquering my dreams
You have awokened what's beneath
Again

Won't you show me how to dance forever? (Forever)
Won't you show me how to dance forever?
Won't you show me how to dance forever?
