

Drag Me Under

Sleep Token

And I know the angels
Tonight are with lost ones
And I am here to merely behold you
As we lie down together

Drag me under again
Give in to your love, oh

And I know the Gods will Abandon the heavens just to find us
To merely behold you
As we lie down together

Drag me under again
Give in to your love, oh

And I know the angels
Tonight are with lost ones
And I am here to merely behold you
As we lie down together...
