

Gods

Sleep Token

Oh, save their cause from their Gods from me
My fucking thought is murder beneath them
And I'll always be the one to shut off
It's so, so easy for me

No more taking chances
No more blame to point with
No more smiling faces
I'm giving up again

You want to talk
You want to talk it out?
'Cause it hurts already and now you left me too
You want to watch me beg 'cause I beg so well?
It's so, so easy for me

(Eternally, eternally)

Do you like the way it feels
Like fire from the heavens
Carving past the surface into you

Do you like the way it feels
Like fire from the heavens
Tearing me asunder beside you

It's so, so easy for me
It's so, so easy for me
