

Infinite Baths

Sleep Token

When you plucked me from the grotto
Silent like a supermodel
When I would wake in staccato
No lightning in a bottle, just
One eye on the target
And two bricks on the throttle
I know now

That even if I am frozen
Timeless as a ghost in my
Nightmares of the ocean
The precipice I'm approaching
Well, you will empty the darkness
You will keep me in motion
I know now

Infinite baths
Washing over me at last
Are you the method in my madness?
Are you the glory in my wrath?
Infinite baths
Bursting colours when you laugh
Well, I have fought so long to be here
I am never going back

Even if I'm on my own
When the silence is deafening
I could be stuck here alone
When even my future is threatening
Something is lifting the bones
Something is dancing in revelry
Wider than oceans below
Taller than titans on box springs
And the waters are warm
Where they used to run freezing
Where there used to be storms
My horizon is fleeting
I'm so tired inside
I could sleep through a landslide
But I'm finally here
And I'm not leaving this time

Infinite baths
Washing over me at last
Are you the method in my madness?
Are you the glory in my wrath?
Infinite baths
Bursting colours when you laugh
I've been running since I got here
But now I'm falling into
Infinite baths

Drift
Let me
Drift
Let me
Drift

Let me
Drift
Let me

All this glory you did not earn
Every lesson you did not learn
You will drown in an endless sea
If it's blood that you want from me
You can empty my arteries
Will you halt this eclipse in me?
Will you half this eclipse in me?
In me?
Teeth of God
Blood of man
I will be
What I am
