

I'll see you when the wrath comes
Knocking on your bedroom door with money
Building you a kingdom
Dripping from the open mouth, I'll show you
What you look like, from the inside
And I'll see you when the wrath comes
Around

Tonight, tonight, tonight you have the answer
Tonight, tonight, tonight you have the answer

Let's load the gun
Make her eat the tape in the bathroom mirror
See if she can guess what
A hollow point does to a naked body
Let's fuck her up
Manifest pain at the core of pleasure
I'll see you when the wrath comes
Around

Tonight, tonight, tonight you have the answer
Tonight, tonight, tonight you have the answer

Oh, let's load the gun
(I won't be missing you, I won't be missing you)
Oh, let's load the gun
(I won't be missing you, I won't be missing you)
Oh, let's load the gun
(I won't be missing you, I won't be missing you)
Oh, let's load the gun
(See you when the wrath comes, see you when the wrath comes)
(I won't be missing you, I won't be missing you)
Oh, let's load the gun
(See you when the wrath comes, I won't be missing you)
