

Take Aim

Sleep Token

Wait, won't you wait for me?
Don't you bathe in rivers?
Don't you feel alive?
And, when I see you waking up
And it sends me shivers
How you love like weapons kill

So take aim at me for once
Just take aim, break me apart

Call, won't you call out my name?
Like a curse on this world?
Like a battle cry?
And you make me hate myself
Make me tear my body
Make me yearn for your embrace

So take aim at me for once
Just take aim, break me apart love
Won't you?

You led me on when the moment is perfect
I will fire and forget till we both lay broken
And you know I'll be yours
Just want to be worth it
I will run like the wind till you follow me again
